NEW DRUG HOUSE.

Rooms Fitted Up in Style—Saturday Souvenir Day.

Anderson & Fowler is the name of a new drug firm, which commenced business in the Hotel Latham building Saturday. The firm is composed of Judge A. H. Anderson, steward at the asylum, and Dr. Leonard Fowler, formerly pharmacist at the same institution.

Both gentlemen are well known, very popular, and it is safe to predict that the new drug house will command a liberal share of patronage.

Dr. Fowler, who is a graduate of the Louisville College of Pharmacy, will have charge of the prescription department, as well as the general business of the house.

Their store room is fitted up in handsome style and is one of the prettiest in Western Kentucky.

Notwithstanding the very inclement weather of Saturday afternoon the new drug store was visited by a large number, and each person was presented with an appreciable souvenir.

DWELLING ROBBED.

In the Day-Time Burglars Get in Their Work.

The dwelling house of Mr. Jackson Gunn, of near Nortonville, was broken into a few days ago and several articles of value were taken.

The family were absent and when they returned the house was found open and everything in great disorder. The burglary was committed in the day time, and, as a matter of course, the thieves covered up all evidence that might lead to their arrest and conviction.

NEW PASSENGER COACH

Cars a Great Improvement On Those Now in Use.

The L. & N. railroad company has just completed at its shops, Louisville a new, high-class passenger coach, which is to be the standard of the company. The coach is pronounced one of the handsomest, most convenient, strongest in the railroad service. The car is an improvement in every way over the standard coach in use. Nine more are to be built at once, to be used in through service and others will be turned out later along as needed.

Dick Anderson, Not Dick Quarles.

In an item about Mr. W. T. B. last issue we stated that his carrying on making business would be conducted by Jno F. Bonte and R. G. Quarles. The use of Mr. Quarles' name was a mistake. He is with another. Dick Anderson was meant.
